

It is a breach of public trust for a multi-station owner to use its broadcast licenses to promote on public airwaves the candidacy of any political candidate, or to air unanswered material that by any reasonable measure promotes one political viewpoint .

Sinclair will be acting outside the authority of its licenses if carries through with its well publicized plans.